But his new book, "The Art Of The Pimp," tells a different side of his "love story" and the legal sex trade. In it, Hof and his "bunnies" paint an honest — and sometimes, critical — picture of their time at the ranch and their lives leading up to legal prostitution. What, then, separates Hof from your average street pimp?

This was a surprisingly interesting book. He is a pimp and says it many times. His story is interesting , also stories of many of the girls that work for him. At times his life seems great , but in some parts of the stories you kinda feel sorry for him and the girls, both seem to be a tad broken. A good read, I recommend .
